Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 30, 2010, Solar Capital Ltd. (the “Company”) announced that it had entered into agreements (each a “Subscription Agreement”) to sell an aggregate of 1,050,000 shares of the Company’s common stock to a group of institutional accredited investors managed by Clough Capital Partners, LP, as well as to Legg Mason Capital Management Special Investment Trust, Inc. and Thornburg Investment Income Builder Fund at a purchase price of $22.94 per share in a private placement transaction conducted in accordance with Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). This private placement transaction also included the previously announced sale of 1,800,000 shares of the Company’s common stock to a group of institutional accredited investors and 115,000 shares of the Company’s common stock to management. The Company used the net proceeds resulting from the private placement to repay $67 million of the Company’s outstanding $125 million 8.75% Senior Unsecured Notes.

In accordance with the Subscription Agreement, the private placement of the Company’s common stock was completed on November 30, 2010. The Subscription Agreement also sets forth the terms and conditions of the private placement, including price and number of shares, and also contains customary representations and warranties from the Company and each investor with respect to the qualifications and ability of each to enter into and complete the private placement, including, without limitation, that each investor qualifies as an “accredited investor” as that term is defined under Rule 501(a) of the Securities Act. The private placement was not conducted in connection with a public offering and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the purchasers in the private placement.

In connection with the private placement, the Company also entered into an agreement (the “Registration Rights Agreement”) pursuant to which it agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission to provide for the resale of the shares issued in the private placement within 30 days of completion of the private placement. However, the Company retains the right to defer such filing for up to 30 days if in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of the Company, it would be materially detrimental to the Company and its security holders for such registration statement to be effected at such time.

The Registration Rights Agreement also requires the Company to use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cause the registration statement to be declared effective as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter and (ii) keep the registration statement continually effective until the earliest to occur of (a) the sale of all of the shares registered thereon, either pursuant to such registration statement or in reliance on Rule 144 under the Securities Act, (b) the date on which all such shares registered thereon cease to be outstanding, or (c) the date on which all such shares registered thereon are eligible for sale under Rule 144 under the Securities Act without any limitation on the amount or method of such sale thereunder. The Company will bear all customary costs and expenses incurred in connection with any registration pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, and all reasonable expenses incurred in performing or complying with the Company’s other obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides for customary indemnification provisions by and among the Company and the security holders who may request to have their shares registered pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions of the terms of the Subscription Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the form of Subscription Agreement and the form of Registration Rights Agreement, which are incorporated by reference hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively.
